We recently moved and had to move our koi pond. Not a fun task, one 60 gal pond and one 75 gal pond. We had two suicide attempts but were quickly diverted so we didn't loose a fish.

Here is the before...

And the after...

*Please note: Do not try this at home. No teenagers were hurt in the process of this stunt. Just a few complaints by the neighbors.

Wednesday night, Criss Angel ~ MindFreak did his death defying escape from the Spy Glass Hotel on Clearwater Beach. It was broadcasted live on A&E. I had the pleasure of going down, along with about 30,000 others.

Tried to get great pictures but it's a little hard when there are so many people. Enjoy!
